Do you want a leadership role in the heat of San Francisco? At GSPORTS PT, we're on a mission to empower people to achieve their best with compassion and expertise. The Clinic Director position was made for you if you want:

- ✨ Real Impact: Make a difference in patients' lives and employee well-being! We've grown into one of the top-ranked physical therapy companies in the Bay Area by staying focused on this.
- 🚀 Career Growth: Step into a leadership role with the chance to grow quickly, supported by mentorship, ongoing professional development, and a healthy work-life balance.
- 💪 Individual Challenges: Develop your leadership skills with a great group of people, from mentoring and managing your team, to making strategic decisions and hiring qualified staff.
- 💖 Social Impact: Shape a clinic culture where everyone feels valued and supported. Empower people of all backgrounds, both patients and staff, to create a culture of compassion and respect.

What You'll Do:

- Lead a vibrant team and foster a positive, communicative, and professional atmosphere.
- Oversee clinic operations to ensure top-quality patient care and hire new staff as needed.
- Analyze clinic performance data to meet financial, operational, and productivity goals.
- Optimize marketing strategies, grow the clinic, and build community partnerships.
- Create an engaging workplace, organize team-building activities, and ensure your staff thrives.
- Lead by example by providing outstanding patient care and prompt electronic documentation.

Qualifications:

- Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) degree
- California state license in Physical Therapy
- CPR certification
- 3+ years of experience in an orthopedic physical therapy setting
- Previous supervisory or management experience preferred but not required
- A passion for leadership and helping others grow and succeed

Compensation
