

We have an exciting opportunity available to join our team at GSPORTS Physical Therapy in San Francisco, Financial District. Are you ready to lead a team and empower people to achieve their best with compassion and expertise? We're hiring for a full-time Clinic Director/Physical Therapist, who is ultimately responsible for the patient experience, employee engagement, daily operations, and financial well being of the clinic.

Responsibilities

- Create a thriving clinic culture and atmosphere
- Lead a great team to perform their best
- Analyze key metrics and create action plans
- Mentor, motivate, and coach staff to achieve goals
- Hire talent and promote professional development
- Process time sheets and review time off requests
- Coordinate staff schedules and coverage
- Manage clinic income and expenses effectively
- Organize clinic sponsored events and lead staff meetings
- Oversee billing operations and resolve customer services issues
- Manage clinic compliance, appearance, and reputation
- Physician and patient marketing and community outreach
- Physical therapy patient care and case management

Qualifications and Skills

- Graduated from an APTA accredited physical therapy school
- Valid physical therapist license in the state of California
- Meet continuing education requirements by the PT Board of CA
- Three years work experience in outpatient orthopedic physical therapy
- One year managing or supervising others
- Motivation to continually learn and grow
- Energy and drive to lead others to be the best
- Positive attitude and professional behavior
- Excellent listening and communication skills
- Dependability and flexibility to respond to unexpected situations
- Organization and time management to handle a busy workload
- Strong computer skills

If this sounds like the right position for you, please submit your cover letter and resume to the link on the Careers page on our website! We look forward to hearing from you!